JOHN W. WITT

J. M. T.

One of the major problems confronting the Wasatch County pioneers concerned their government. The Territorial Legislature had appointed John W. Witt "Probate Judge." Judge Witt set up a County Court to care for the civil needs of the people. He appointed Thomas Todd, James Duke and John H. Van Wagoner as Selectmen.

Early in the settlement of the valley trouble, in the form of Indian raids began to worry settlers. By the Spring of 1866 nearly every able bodied man in the county was engaged in active military service.

The pioneer families considered it wise to locate in a central place. A fort was built in Heber township. A large corral was made in Cluff's Hollow where most of the cattle were guarded at night. During the day they were herded on the surrounding hills.

One of the first men to be appointed to active military duty was John Witt. His ability to direct men and operations was such that he was commissioned a Major in the Wasatch County Militia. Under his command were cavalymen who scouted the mountains for signs of hostile Indians.

At first the valley was all one ward presided over by Joseph S. Murdock. John Witt was chosen as counselor to Mr. Murdock.

Evidences of the life and works of John Witt are all about us. The Witt name is known for good, for achievement and for strength throughout Wasatch County. To John Witt goes our thanks for his efforts to help build Wasatch County.
